

Woodland Park School District

A place of becoming

Woodland Park School District Board President David Rusterholtz surprised a Woodland Park Middle School teacher by offering to buy donuts for her class!

Ms. Cook was touched by the gesture and thanked Mr. Rusterholtz on social media for the thoughtful act saying, “Thank you to our school board President David Rusterholtz for buying donuts for my class this morning.”

In her post, Ms. Cook shared that she did not know who Mr. Rusterholtz was, “I am new to WPSD and had absolutely no idea who he was, asked his name after he offered so I could thank him, then he told me who he was. I was embarrassed for not recognizing him (I have watched a few meetings on YouTube), but he was so kind!” she stated.

It's heartwarming to see the impact this act had on one of our teachers and the reaction it received from the community. Thank you, Mr. Rusterholtz, for supporting our teachers inside and outside the classroom!
